

Little Bees: match the stickers

Stick the sticker in the empty box next to the clue. Grey picture: each sticker matches its own grey picture.

The colour of the sticker's frame is not a clue: look at the picture.

Little Bees: match the stickers

Stick the sticker in the empty box next to the clue. Grey picture: each sticker matches its own grey picture.

The colour of the sticker's frame is not a clue: look at the picture.

Little Bees: teacher's key

Read the sentence next to the picture when the child matches the sticker. Can a computer see?

Bip is a cartoon robot, our helper in the film.

A picture made of a few big squares: not many details.

In this picture made of little squares, you can see more details.

Through a magnifying glass, you can see details up close.

There is sometimes artificial intelligence in a phone.

Some cleaning robots recognise obstacles.